

Board Recruitment & Development

Securing new members to fill gaps, exhibit exceptional professional qualities, open valuable corporate and community avenues, and are trained to drive your organization's success

Step 1 of 6	How	Why
Analyze existing board	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Work with existing board members to identify gaps, needs, and ideal candidate qualities 	The ideal board is a balance of complimentary members
Step 2 of 6	How	Why
Analyze corporate community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Conduct external Groundtruthing™ to identify ideal corporate and community sources of new board members 	Boards are valuable because of their capabilities as well as corporate and community connections
Step 3 of 6	How	Why
Develop a candidate profile	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Work with overseeing committee to compile the ideal candidate profile based on findings from steps 1 and 2 	To ensure the ideal candidate fills real board gaps and exhibits additional desirable qualities
Step 4 of 6	How	Why
Source candidates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leverage the Stratiscope network and other strategic sources to identify candidates Engage most promising candidates Check-in with client to confirm direction 	Stratiscope's hands-on and personal approach to sourcing is well-rounded and thorough so as to find the most promising candidates
Step 5 of 6	How	Why
Secure candidates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Present finalists Facilitate meetings with finalists 	Stratiscope stays with its clients every step of the way
Step 6 of 6	How	Why
Train board members	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Custom sessions with board members to enhance non-profit management skills 	Being a successful board member requires a unique skill set

Result: New board members who are a positioned and trained to drive the success of your organization